

5 Great Ways to Increase Employee Retention

Companies across the board are finding it increasingly difficult to retain their most important assets - their employees.

of HR experts consider employee retention among their highest priorities of employees think they can find a better position elsewhere of turnover happens in the first 45 days of work at a new company

WHAT EMPLOYEES HAVE TO SAY:

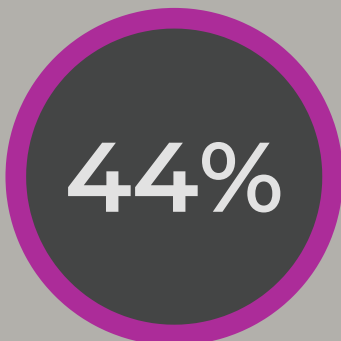

say they're more likely to stay at a company that takes and acts on feedback of highly engaged employees are less likely to leave say they want enhanced employee benefits say they would accept a job at another company if offered higher pay say they favour transparency from management

References